Leo. No come brother,away, I wil be heard. Exeunt amb.
Bro. And shal, or some of vs wil smart for it. Enter Ben.
Prince See see,heere comes the man we went to seeke.
Claud. Now signior,what newes?
Bened. Good day my Lord:
Prince Welcome signior, you are almost come to parte almost a fray.
Claud. Wee had likt to haue had our two noses snapt off with two old men without teeth.
Prince Leonato and his brother what thinkst thou? had we fought, I doubt we should haue beene too yong for them.
Bened. In a false quarrell there is no true valour, I came to seeke you both.
Claud. We haue beene vp and downe to seeke thee,for we are high proofe melancholie, and would faine haue it beaten away, wilt thou vse thy wit?
Bened. It is in my scabberd, shal I drawe it?
Prince Doest thou weare thy wit by thy side?
Claud. Neuer any did so,though very many haue been beside their wit, I will bid thee drawe,as wee doe the minstrels, draw to pleasure vs.
Prince As I am an honest man he lookes pale, art thou sicke,or angry?
Claud. What,courage man: what though care kild a catte, thou hast mettle enough in thee to kill care.
Bened. Sir, I shall meete your wit in the careere, and you charge it against me, I pray you chuse another subiect
Claud. Nay then giue him another staffe,this last was broke crosse.
Prince By this light,he chaunges more and more, I thinke he be angry indeed.
Claud. If he be,he knowes how to turne his girdle.
Bened. Shall I speake a word in your eare?
Claud. God blesse me from a challenge.
Bened. You are a villaine, I iest not, I will make it good howe you dare, with what you dare, and when you dare: doe mee right,or I will protest your cowardise: you haue kild a sweete
